Chapter 1 by Tokoroa Central School

Once a long time ago there lived a nine year old boy named Tom. He was a very nice boy he lives by a cemetery his house was a small cottage he has a mum and a dad and also a sister they go sometimes to play a game called who will freak out the first. One day they came there and they saw a skinny man with black hair. Tom was scared about the man so ran all the way back home he said to his dad "um... dad... who lives by the cemetery" dad didn't say anything dad just sat and cried he cried for three minutes his face was blotchy and his eyes were full with tears Tom couldn't handle the tears coming out of his dad's eye so he shut the door bang he told himself that he is going back to the cemetery so he did when the clock struck midnight he walked out his house his mum said "what are you doing darling" Tom replied "um... i'm going to" as he moved the door knob turned and as quick as a lighting bolt he raced down the dirty path and finally got to the cemetery he looked and saw a grassy tombstone he moved the weeds and saw his name on the tombstone it said in the loving memory of Tom age 345 birthday on may the 2nd Tom was shocked to see that was the same name as him he could hear the wind blowing around him the man came out of the grave and said "why are you here" Tom shivered and sweat down his spine he ran quickly across the path but the air turned black around the graveyard he felt like someone was watching him. He ran pretty fast when he got home he looked at the clock then went to bed but he could hear the graves saying "death is lurking"! in the morning his hair stood up it felt like he was right by the sun he had sweat coming through his back and shoulders he walked outside and cooled down he walked back to the cemetery his sister said "where are you going to" Tom just ignored her and walked back to the cemetery he walked and walked then came to the cemetery he saw the man and said what is your name the ghost said "my name is
